

Strategic Ageing

Strategic Ageing is a series of occasional papers on major policy issues concerning older people.

Vol 17/2004 - Grandparents raising grandchildren

A report of the project commissioned by the Hon. Larry Anthony, Minister for Children & Youth Affairs July 2003

Vol.16/2004 - Working on: policies and programs for older workers.

A project supported and funded by the Winston Churchill Memorial Trust and the Vincent Fairfax Foundation, by Veronica Sheen .

Vol.15/2002 - Superannuation and standards of living in retirement.

Submission to the Senate Select Committee on Superannuation Inquiry into Standards of living in retirement and factors contributing to it

Submissions to the Senate Inquiry are available online at www.aph.gov.au/Senate/committee/superannuation\_ctte/living\_standards/Submissions/sublist.htm

Vol.14/2001 - Enough to live on: a retirement incomes policy framework for the 21st century: two submissions.

1. Response to Independence and Self-Provision discussion paper for the National Strategy for an Ageing Australia.
2. Retirement incomes, housing and support for older Australians: submission to Federal Budget 2001-2002.

Vol.13/2001 - Looking up and looking out: frameworks for positive ageing in the 21st century: two submissions.

1. Response to Healthy Ageing discussion paper for the National Strategy for and Ageing Australia.
2. Response to Attitude. Life-style and Community Support discussion paper of the National Strategy for an Ageing Australia.

Vol.12/2001 - Older Australians: an agenda for the new millennium on health and aged care: two submissions.

1. World class care: response to National Strategy for an Ageing Australia discussion paper.
2. Submission to Federal Budget 2001-2002.

There is a small degree of overlap between these two papers.

Vol.11/2001 - Investing in the future: Australia's ageing workforce: two submissions.

1. A response to Employment for Mature Age Workers issues paper for the National Strategy for an Ageing Australia.
2. Federal Budget submission.

Vol. 10/2000 - Older Australians: a working future? The ageing population and work in the 21st century

Deputy Director Veronica Sheen prepared this paper for presentation at the Committee of Economic Development (CED) international conference on the Ageing of the Global Workforce, Washington, September 2000. Jointly published with the Committee for Economic Development Australia (CEDA).

Vol 9/99 - Older Australians: working for the future

Presents two submissions for the House of Representatives inquiry into issues specific to older workers seeking employment or establishing a business, following unemployment. It consists of two components - issues raised by mature aged people in focus groups, and policy recommendations directed to the Federal Government for action.

Vol. 8/99 - Seniors in Cyberspace: older people and information

Vol. 7/99 - Valuing older Australians: 1999-2000 Federal Budget submission

Vol. 6/98 - Challenges and changes: tax reform; competitive tendering; public dental care

Vol. 5/98 - Restoring Security for Older Australians: 1998-99 Commonwealth Budget Submission

Vol. 4/97 - The 1997-98 Budget

Vol. 3/97 - Commonwealth Budget Submission for Older Australians 1997-98

Vol. 2/96 - Changing Aged Care, discusses the Coalition Government reforms to aged care.

Vol. 1/96 - Competition, Commercialization and Citizens.